

A Retreat for Directors of Youth Ministry
for the Byzantine Catholic Metropolitan Church of Pittsburgh

Friday, May 2, 2008 to Sunday, May 4, 2008
at Antiochian Village
Ligonier, PA

This retreat for directors of youth ministry, or those interested in starting youth ministry in their parishes, will be incorporated into the Archieparchial Ministry Conference. It will offer some basic comprehensive youth ministry information and tools for first comers based on Renewing the Vision – A Framework for Youth Ministry from the National Conference of Catholic Bishops. The retreat also will be enhanced by workshops on Eastern Christian theology based the teachings of St. Paul presented by Father Jack Custer. Sister Celeste Strohmeyer will provide text and information for helping teens deal with obstacles to authentic Christian living in contemporary culture. Group discussions will offer opportunities to identify particular needs, develop ideas, share support and enjoy fellowship with other directors of youth ministry.
